HEARST COMES OUT FOR TAFT

New Yorker Issues Remarkable Statement.

ADMINISTRATION ALL RIGHT

Former Candidate for the Democratic Nomination for President Indorses the Work of the Nation's Chief Executive—Criticises Roosevelt and Warns the Country Against a Renewal of the Latter's Political Domination.

Washington, April 21.—William Randolph Hearst, former aspirant for the Democratic nomination for the presidency, issued a remarkable statement over his own signature, in which he unqualifiedly indorses Mr. Taft. In doing so he also criticises in the severest terms the administration of President Roosevelt and in so many words warns the American nation against a renewal of the political domination of the former president.

Mr. Hearst called at the White House. He spent a half hour with the president in the executive offices. Upon leaving Mr. Hearst said he had called merely to pay his respects to Mr. Taft, whom he said he admired. Later he issued his indorsement of the Taft administration.

"No one can talk with the president without appreciating and respecting his earnestness and sincerity," the statement proceeds. "Personally, I believe also in his efficiency. He has been one year in office and he has certainly accomplished more in that one year than Roosevelt did in his first year.

"It is hardly fair to compare Taft's one year with Roosevelt's seven and yet I am not sure that even with that the comparison might not be to Taft's advantage. Taft's methods are not those of Roosevelt, but then Taft will probably not conclude his term with a panic.

"On the whole, it seems to me that a quiet, earnest gentleman, who came into office when the country was in the slough of adversity and after one year in office has placed the country on the high road of prosperity, is quite as valuable a president as a more showy and spectacular person, who found the country in the height of prosperity and left it in the depths of adversity.

Carrying Out Roosevelt's Policies.

"Taft is carrying out Roosevelt's policies in the one way that they ought to be carried out. That is to say, he is doing the things that Roosevelt should have done, but did not do.

"Taft is making the Roosevelt railroad rate act complete and effective. The railroad rate act has always been an utter farce and everybody who knew anything about the subject knew when it was passed that it was a farce and would be a failure. It might have been meant to be a failure.

"At any rate, Mr. Hepburn, the gentleman who was selected by the Roosevelt administration to stand sponsor for that bill in the house, had been but lately hanged in effigy by his enthusiastic constituents for too great friendliness to the railroads.

"Would you have selected that kind of man, tagged with that kind of testimonial, to frame that kind of a bill? And can you imagine Mr. Roosevelt, the Diogenes of politics, hunting through the house of congress, lantern in hand, to find an honest man, and selecting this executed effigy as the fittest one to frame the people's railroad bill?"

Mr. Hearst says that President Taft is trying to stiffen into an active force the "spineless railroad rate bill" of the Roosevelt administration. He gives Mr. Taft credit for the prosecution of criminal trust and for throwing his powerful influence behind many needed laws, among them the corporation tax bill, the overcapitalization bill, a bill providing for postal savings banks, the parcels post measure and the income tax bill.

"Most certainly if the people want the tariff modified they must turn to another party, for the tariff never will be modified by its beneficiaries. And its beneficiaries control the Republican party."

Mr. Hearst closed his statement with the declaration that the American people need look for no tariff reform.

Lost in the Black Hills.

Terry, S. D., April 21.—Searching parties are scouring the hills for Louie Kline, twenty years old, of this place, missing for nearly a week. With two companions young Kline was out fishing in Spearfish canyon when the severe snowstorm came on and they broke camp and became separated. The other young men were found in an exhausted condition due to exposure.

Mark Twain Weaker.

Redding, Conn., April 21.—In a statement given out by Dr. Halsey, the attending physician, he says, Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain), who is ill at his home, Stormfield, is weaker.

MATHILDE TOWNSEND.

Beautiful Heiress to Become Wife of Peter Goelet Gerry.

BEAUTIFUL HEIRESS TO WED

Mathilde Townsend to Become Wife of Peter G. Gerry.

Washington, April 21.—Mrs. Richard Townsend has announced the engagement of her daughter Mathilde to Peter Goelet Gerry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge T. Gerry of New York. The wedding is expected to take place June 1 in the Washington home of the Townsends. Miss Townsend has been called the most beautiful heiress in the country. She is a granddaughter of the late Colonel Thomas Scott of Pennsylvania and is a cousin of Mrs. Reginald Ronalds of New York.

Mr. Gerry is a brother of Robert Livingston Gerry, who married Miss Cornelia Harriman, daughter of E. H. Harriman of New York. He is connected through his mother with the Goelets and Livingstons of New York.

FORTY ENTOMBED IN AN ALABAMA MINE

Fearful That All of the Men Have Perished.

Birmingham, Ala., April 21.—Between thirty-five and forty men are entombed in the Mulga mine of the Birmingham Coal and Iron company as the result of an explosion and their fate is not known. The explosion was of such force that the flames shot to a great height from the mouth of the shaft.

The cages in the mouth of the shaft were so badly sprung by the explosion that they cannot be used.

The shaft is not on fire and air is being pumped into the mine.

The cause of the explosion has not been determined.

It is believed the men in the mine are all dead.

ATTACK ON RAILROAD BILL

Comes From a Rather Unexpected Quarter.

Washington, April 21.—An attack upon the administration railroad bill has come from a new quarter. The railroad commissioners of practically all the states in the Union are being urged by the executive committee of the National Association of Railroad Commissioners to protest against the passage of the bill in the form in which it has been reported to the house from Chairman Mann's committee on interstate commerce.

Telegrams of protest were received from Governor Eberhart, Attorney General Simpson and other officials of Minnesota. The state railway commissioners attacked the administration bill upon two points. They claim that it expressly repeals the provisions of the interstate commerce law of 1887, which states that that law is not intended to apply to commerce within the borders of the state. Further than this, it is claimed that the administration bill in its regulation of the issuance of stocks and bonds takes all power of that kind away from the states and gives the federal commission authority over even the smallest roads that lie entirely within the borders of a state. The state's rights fight may assume important proportions before the bill has gone much farther in the house.

Nelson Denies Relationship.

Washington, April 21.—In Senator Nelson's office it was said there is no truth in the story printed in newspapers to the effect that the senator's niece, said to be the daughter of a brother living in Chicago, had eloped with a young salesman in the East, in so far as it related to the relationship of the girl to the senator. Nelson says he knows nothing of the Nelsons mentioned in that dispatch.

Opposed to Income Tax.

Albany, N. Y., April 21.—The concurrent resolution committing the state in favor of the proposed income tax federal Constitution was defeated in the assembly by a vote of 74 to 66.

ATTACKS TAFT IN HIS FIRST SPEECH

Senator Purcell of North Dakota Criticises President.

ALSO SCORES WICKERSHAM

Virtually Charges a Purpose of So Transforming the Supreme Court as to Insure Such Construction of the Proposed Railroad Law as to Supplant and Nullify Antagonistic State Laws and State Constitutions.

Washington, April 21.—In his maiden speech delivered in the senate on the railroad bill Senator Purcell of North Dakota sharply criticised the president and the attorney general. He virtually charged a purpose of so transforming the supreme court as to insure such construction of the proposed law as to supplant and nullify antagonistic state laws and state constitutions.

He was dealing with the merger provisions of the bill and, having stated that the North Dakota state constitution prohibited the consolidation of railroad lines, contended that under decisions of the supreme court it had held in effect that questions of this character were subject to state control.

"It must be apparent to every one," he proceeded, "that when the president and the attorney general drafted this law they were familiar with existing laws in relation to the matter covered by Section 12. It is fair to assume that they put it in this bill because they wanted to see it become law. Section 12, if enacted, would conflict with the decisions mentioned."

"It can become operative only in one way. Of the members of the supreme court which decided the Louisville and Nashville railroad case only three are now on the bench and two are advanced in years and are now entitled to their retirement. The court is in a lamentable condition. Two vacancies now practically exist. Two more soon will exist in the natural course of events. This will make at least four appointments that the president will have to make."

Stated for Supreme Court.

"Having the power to appoint the members of this court, who finally determine the law upon all questions, he has the opportunity to appoint those whose sentiments in regard to the Section 12 accord with his. The attorney general would, no doubt, grace the supreme bench. If he were appointed would not he support his own handwork?"

"How easy it would be for the president, through his new appointees, to bring about a change in existing law, and to foist upon the people the provisions of Section 12 as the law of the land."

"The pending bill demonstrates that the president is strongly inclined toward the interests of the railroads. Therefore, would he not make appointments of court of commerce judges known to be favorable to the railroads?"

"If this should happen, then by the passage of this bill, all the benefits and protection given by court decisions may be lost and the railroads may, by our action, be authorized to accomplish those very things, in matters of consolidation, which the courts have determined they could not do because they were detrimental and destructive to the rights of the people."

Mr. Purcell criticised many of the provisions of the bill.

When he concluded Mr. Purcell was congratulated by a number of his colleagues.

Following Mr. Purcell's speech the senate engaged in a prolonged wrangle over a parliamentary entanglement relating to the status of amendments offered by Senators Crawford and Cummins to the provision legalizing traffic agreements between railroad companies.

PREDICTION OF OLD INDIAN

Sioux Warrior Says Comet Means Stormy Summer.

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 21.—"The star which swallows its tail," is the manner in which an aged Sioux warrior from the Pine Ridge reservation refers to Halley's comet. In the course of an interview at Interior, a small town near the reservation, the old Indian stated he could distinctly remember the last previous visit of the comet when he was a mere boy. The old warrior stated further that this summer season would be stormy and restless with much violent weather.

Papal Nuncio Not Blamed.

Rome, April 21.—The report that Mgr. Granito di Belmonte Pignatelli, the papal nuncio at Vienna, has been recalled, is declared by the Vatican to be absolutely unfounded. It is added that not only has the nuncio not been recalled, but he has not been even blamed in any way, as the Holy see does not consider that he has created any incident by paying a call of courtesy on Ambassador Keens, when he could not help but meet Mr. Roosevelt.

SENATOR PURCELL.

Criticises the President in His Maiden Speech.

DISARMAMENT OF NATIONS

Secretary of State Knox Believes It Is Practicable.

Washington, April 21.—Ultimate disarmament of the nations of the world is practicable in the opinion of Secretary Knox. He believes the establishment of a court of arbitral justice to which the nations of the world may appeal for the settlement of their controversies will have the effect as its own natural consequences of not merely reducing armament, but ultimately of rendering large armaments unnecessary.

His plan for the establishment of such a court, which was outlined in an identical note sent last fall to various nations, is said to be meeting with general favor and Mr. Knox believes that the court will be constituted at The Hague in the near future.

LAWYERS ENGAGE IN A WORDY WARFARE

Stormy Courtroom Scene in Hyde Murder Trial.

Kansas City, April 21.—A stormy courtroom scene in which many lawyers addressed the court at the same time, handled charges of unfair play among themselves, the bond of Dr. B. C. Hyde was almost revoked, and attorneys for the defense threatened, upon certain conditions, to attempt impeachment of state witnesses, marked the Hyde murder trial.

The trouble all arose over an attack of Prosecutor Conkling's office losing the grand jury notes in the testimony of Dr. Walter S. Haines, and forty-two other state witnesses. A woman found the notes and gave them to Frank P. Walsh, chief counsel for Dr. Hyde.

These notes, according to Mr. Walsh, contain statements of Dr. Haines that no cyanide of potassium was found in the viscera of Colonel Swope, and that not enough poison was found in Chrisman Swope's viscera to cause death.

If Dr. Haines swears on the witness stand to any alleged facts other than these, he will be prosecuted for perjury, said Mr. Walsh. Perjury is a capital offense in a murder case.

Found Traces of Poison.

Prosecutor Conkling admits this is the testimony Dr. Haines gave before the grand jury, but avers that later the chemist found traces of cyanide of potassium in both viscera. He will testify to this, says Mr. Conkling.

In the meantime, the papers have been returned to the state and the defense is in possession of carbon copies of the evidence. Judge Latschaw is of the opinion that he has no power to deprive the defense of the copies.

Miss Pearl Keller, who attended Colonel Swope in his last illness, took the stand after the upheaval in the court. She told about and acted out, in part, the entire scene in the millionaire's death chamber.

Dr. Hyde ordered her to give Colonel Swope the capsule upon which hinges the entire case, said Miss Keller. Colonel Swope did not want to take the medicine, she testified. After he had taken it and passed through a convulsion, she said, he moaned:

"Oh, my God, I wish I was dead. I wish I had not taken that medicine."

Lindberg Scores Leaders.

Washington, April 21.—In a statement just issued Representative Lindberg of Minnesota vigorously assails Speaker Cannon and Senators Aldrich, Hale and Lodge, referring to them as "pirates." Mr. Lindberg was referring to the prospective retirement from public life of Senators Aldrich and Hale. He declares against "government by professional politicians."

Jury Out in Simon Case.

Pittsburg, April 21.—The jury is out considering the case of A. V. Simon, the second councilman tried for bribery. John F. Klein was the chief witness against Simon.

STRIKERS AND POLICE CLASH

SOUTH BAY LAKE

It sounds queer enough when the editor gets into such a hurry as to publish the items given to him for his paper, just the opposite to which they were written. The last item written for South Bay Lake last week was pretty badly mixed. Martin Peterson is at "Big Timber, Mont.," instead of "Big Thunder," and the home stands are not all railroads, but are all too far from the railroads. I hope that such mistakes won't happen very often. If they do please don't lay it to the S. Bay Lake correspondent.

John Nordin returned to Deerwood Thursday afternoon. He sold his big team a short time ago and now instead of hauling coal to the shaft at Cuyuna he will take care of the superintendent's driving team and attend to the office.

Mrs. Edd Ellmore and children were calling at R. J. Maghan's last Wednesday afternoon.

The Esdon school will close on Friday, April 29 and as that day is Arbor day the people of the District are invited to come and help set out some shade trees in the school yard. Every one who can come be sure and bring a nice tree to plant and also bring a basket of lunch as we are going to have a picnic dinner. The school children will also speak pieces, and sing songs appropriate to the occasion. Everyone try and come and have a good time.

John Waffensmith has rented Charlie Coleman's place and John Peterson has been busy for the past week helping him plow the ground and sow it to wheat.

Able Christensen is busy helping Ira Torrey put in his place and take care of his fruit trees.

Carl Wilson is busy helping Martin Sepp cut fencing and put up his pasture fence.

Alfred Gerzen, with Dan Chord as his assistant, was driving around the country last Friday trying to induce someone to trade horses with him. Everybody seemed too well satisfied already to trade with him. Nevertheless he has a fine saddle pony for anyone who wishes to buy.

The weather wasn't very agreeable last Friday and Saturday; for the schoolma'ams to attend teachers' meeting in Brainerd but most of them succeeded in getting there anyway.

Mrs. Hunt and son Charlie Coleman, talk of moving to Deerwood to live, as Charlie's health will not allow him to do farm work any more.

Carl Wilson and Able Christensen were calling on Fred Wolf and John Peterson Sunday. One of them ate supper with John and the other ate with Fred.

"BAY LAKE SAVAGE."

ESDON ETCHINGS

Miss Ellen Bartling, who teaches at Neutral, had the misfortune to lose a fine back-comb as she came from Brainerd on her way to Neutral Easter Sunday. It was quite a nice one set with rose diamonds and a present from a friend.

Misses Minnie Bock and Annie Tollefson will go to work at the Barber cottage next Monday.

The Bock girls enjoyed a visit from their friends, Misses Ellen Bartling and Dora Arneson, Saturday night.

Misses Minnie and Laura Bock, Miss Ellen Bartling and Dora Arneson and Fred Bock took dinner at M. L. Hammett's.

The severe snow storm Saturday put a stop to seeding for a few days. It also looks as if it had spoiled plums and other fruit that were in blossom.

John Hammett, Jr., took Miss Caughey home last Saturday and brought her back Sunday.

Frank Wickham has been working for Billy Ramsdale for a few days.

Mr. Wickham left for Cuyuna Wednesday, where he is building a house.

Saved from the Grave

"I had about given up hope, after nearly four years of suffering from a severe trouble," writes Mrs. M. L. Dix, of Clarksville, Tenn. "Often the pain in my chest would be almost unbearable and I could not do any work, but Dr. King's New Discovery has made me feel like a new person. Its best medicine made for the throat and lungs." Obsolete coughs, stubborn colds, hay fever, la grippe, asthma, croup, bronchitis and hemorrhages, hoarseness and whooping cough, yield quickly to this wonderful medicine. Try it. 50c and $1. Serious Fight Occurs on Street of Schoenville, Pa.

FOUR MEN ARE SHOT DOWN

And One Foreigner Is in the Hospital

With Injuries Received When a Train Struck Him While He Was Seeking to Evade Arrest—Rioting Started at the "Bloody Angle" When an Officer Ordered the Crowd to Move.

Pittsburg, April 21.—The first clash between the police and the strikers of the Pressed Steel Car company plant at Schoenville has occurred and, by a coincidence, it occurred at the corner known as "Bloody Angle," where half a dozen men were shot down in the strike riots of last July. Four men were shot and one foreigner is in the hospital with injuries received when a train struck him while trying to escape.

The injured are Policeman James McDaniels, shot in the hip; Joseph Vironot, shot in the thigh, and John Koeski, shot in the arm. Besides these one man was carried away by the strikers and is believed to be secreted in one of the strikers' houses. Koeski escaped across the Ohio river to Woods Run, but was pursued by the police and arrested there and brought to the hospital.

The rioting was started by about 100 of the strikers congregated at the "Bloody Angle," who refused to move on when ordered by McDaniels. The crowd docked around the officer and a man on the edge fired the shot that felled the policeman.

Battle on the Street.

Other policemen then brought into play their firearms, followed by the strikers, and the battle raged for a quarter of an hour.

McDaniels, lying on the ground, emptied his revolver into the crowd, and strikers began to fall, some supposedly hit, for they were carried away by friends, and others lying prone to avoid the bullets. Vironot, who was overlooked and left lying in the street, was captured and taken to a hospital.

The man that shot McDaniels was struck by an express train and was hurled high in the air, falling beside the tracks apparently lifeless. At the hospital it is not known whether he will recover.

A number of the rioters were recognized by the police and arrests are being made as fast as they are found.

Extra police have been sworn in by the Stowe township authorities, and a special detail, heavily armed, is guarding the police station and lockup, which a crowd of foreigners attempted to force to release their comrades.

Only about 200 reported at the plant for work and scores of others were assaulted on their way to work. The assaults in almost every instance escaped capture.

TROUBLE FEARED IN CUBA

Reported That Demonstrations by Blacks Are Impending.

Havana, April 21.—The widespread sentiment of apprehension, the result of the sudden dispatch during the small hours of the morning from Camp Columbia for Santa Clara of a battalion of infantry, a battery of machine guns and a troop of mounted rural guards, has been in nowise allayed by the statement given out at military headquarters that the dispatch of the troops was merely the carrying out of a long approved plan to station a garrison at Santa Clara, and that orders had been given in the middle of the night for the purpose of testing the ability of the troops to undertake distant service at a moment's notice.

This explanation does not agree with a statement issued by the secretary of the interior, Lopez Leiva, that the sending out of the troops was the result of reports received by the government that the negroes in Santa Clara and Oriente provinces had been greatly excited by the inflammatory addresses of the negro agitator, General Evaristo Estenozo.

There are rumors of impending negro demonstrations in the provinces of Santa Clara, Oriente and Pinar del Rio, but no overt acts anywhere are reported.

Stock Growers' Meeting Ended.

Miles City, Mont., April 21.—The silver anniversary meeting of the Montana Stock Growers' association has concluded. Professor Linfield of the state agricultural college spoke on the relation of the new settler to the live stock industry. Professor Linfield said only one-third of the state can ever become agricultural. Governor Morris followed along something of the same lines. C. H. Loud was elected president, David Pratt first vice president, G. W. Brewster second vice president and D. W. Raymond secretary treasurer.

New York Foundations Company Get-

This Work

THE TOWN IS GROWING

Crosby Will be Center of Railroad and Mine Activity in a Very Few Weeks

Crosby, Minn.—The New York Foundations company, which has the contract for the Rogers-Brown Ore company's shaft near Crosby, has shipped in one of the largest concrete mixers ever seen in Crow Wing county. The entire shaft is to be of concrete and will be commenced in a short time, as much of the material is already on the ground. The shaft it is reported, will be one of the best in Minnesota.

The new ferry boat between Crosby and Deerwood, has been put in commission. It makes the run between the two towns in 15 minutes and is drawing a good patronage.

A grand ball was given at the hotel at Crosby to celebrate the completion of the hotel by A. Roberts, contractor, of Duluth. Music was furnished by Sall and Howard. Over 50 people were present, many coming from Deerwood, Cuyuna, Rabbit Lake, Mahomen Lake, McCarthy's camp, Klondyke and other places on the range. Supper was furnished by Mr.
Roberts. All present had a most enjoyable time.

The graders on the Soo line are now within about a mile and a half of this city and work is progressing rapidly. Crosby will have a railroad before the outside world realizes it.

There is being a building erected for a restaurant and pool hall. The identity of the parties behind the project has not been made known.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Roberts, of Duluth, were visiting in Crosby this week.
Mrs. Iverson, of Crosby, was visiting in Deerwood on Wednesday.

ing stock and business.

Emil M. Johnson, the twin city contractor, who has the construction of the Beare block on South Seventh street is waiting for a shipment of brick. Just as soon as the brick arrives he will put on a large force and rush the building to completion. Excavation work will commence the latter part of next week.

The Sunday school institute to be held in the First Congregational church tomorrow night will be conducted by M. A. M. Locker, state Sunday school secretary, of St. Paul. Afternoon session commences 2:45 and evening session at 7:45. Sunday school teachers and those interested in Sunday school work should not miss hearing him. t1

Paul Domke, of Pipestone, Minn., who has wrestled with Gordon, of Minneapolis, Olson, of Chicago, and other wrestlers is in the city today at the City hotel and will say here until tomorrow noon. He will wrestle Friday night at Staples, meeting Kid Rogers. While in town he would like to meet local sporting men and see if a match could be arranged here. He claims to be able to bring Gatch here if there is enough money in sight.

James Mahoney came down from international Falls last night and will go to Minneapolis tomorrow morning to attend the grand opera tomorrow night. Jim has "bunched" the clothing store job up there and gone to work with a construction gang on the new paper mill. He says the job was all right but there was too much of it. Working in the store from early morning to from 9 to 11 o'clock at night got monotonous and he decided to change occupations.

J. M. Glunt returned home yesterday afternoon after an absence of several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Glunt went from here to Spokane and thence to Portland and down to Los Angeles, returning to Portland and thence over the Oregon short line to Omaha and Council Bluffs, where Mrs.
Glunt staid while he revisited his old home in Pennsylvania. Mrs. Glunt is still in Council Bluffs where she remained to supervise improvements on their cemetery lot. She will probably return home in a short time. Mr. Glunt is much improved by his journey, but Mrs. Glunt is still in very poor health.

B. Soloski, of Soloski & Levant, returned yesterday from a trip to Cu-yuna where he inspected his branch clothing store. He reports business good. The school house is nearing completion, and the carpenters are working on the interior finishing.
Mr. Soloski purchased a residence lot while there. The hospital building which Dr. R. J. Sewall is erecting is so far advanced that the carpenters are doing the inside work. The country road from the Soo tracks to Cuyuna is almost impassable as it is necessary to go through a swamp to avoid the railway construction work.
All the residents of Cuyuna are anxious to incorporate so as to be able to repair their own roads. They all regret the fact that the representatives they sent to Brainerd were unable to secure favorable action on their petition to incorporate. Men are now at work grading the streets in Cuyuna.

WHY SOME TOWNS GROW

Say a Good Word About Your Home City or Keep Silent and the Benefit Will be Apparent

An exchange in discussing the prosperity of some towns says that the reason they grow and are prosperous is because there are men of push and energy in it who are not afraid to boom their town. They erect substantial buildings, organize stock companies and establish factories, secure railroads, work for public improvements and use every means in their power to induce people to locate in their city. Wherever they go they tell of the advantages of their city, they write about them in every letter, they send circulars and newspapers to all whom they think they can get to visit the city and when anyone visits them treats him so kindly that he falls in love with them and their city at once. It is enterprise and everyone pulling together that makes a progressive town and don't let the fact escape your memory.

To hear every person saying something pleasant about its people and its interest is the surest, quickest and easiest way to make a town attractive to a stranger. One of the best ways in which to make a town attractive with that sort of attraction that will draw other people to it is for every man and woman to have a pleasant word for the people and the town generally. Talk up your town if you would have it do well. Talk up your town if you would feel an interest in it and have its people feel an interest in you. There is no better way to do it. And many a time one little word of unpleasant reference to something that does not exactly suit you and not particularly concern you as to that matter will turn a good man's influence away from your town and may even drive him away. And at your own fireside, among neighbors and coming in contact with strangers talk up the most potent agency ever set in motion for helping your town.

'PASSES ARE ABOLISHED

State Fair Management Resolution Made at Annual Meeting of the State Agricultural Society

At the first meeting of the new board of managers of the State Fair, held at the secretary's office on the fair grounds, the resolution passed by the agricultural society during their annual meeting relative to entirely abolishing complimentary tickets to the state fair, was thoroughly discussed, and it was finally decided to completely eliminate the use of the much censured pass. It was not without some fear and trembling, to be sure, as a great many who have been favored with complimentary tickets in the past considered the matter more in the light of an honored courtesy, than the amount of money saved them. However, the general public sentiment seems to be that a square deal for all, can only be assured by the discontinuance of this past policy and in the future there can be no question regarding partiality being shown as money will be the only thing that talks.

Old Resident Dies

Mrs. S. A. Goldstrand, who died of pneumonia April 19, 1910, after an illness of two weeks, had lived in Brainerd since 1882. Mrs. Goldstrand, whose maiden name was Elna Nilson, was born in Malma, Sweden, September 21, 1844, and was married there July 2, 1874, to Swan A. Goldstrand, a resident of the same place. She and her husband settled in Brainerd in 1882 and remained here continuously since then.

She leaves surviving her husband and a niece, Miss Amanda Thylander, who has made her home with the family several years. There was one child from the union, Ida Goldstrand, who died in infancy. The other relatives, two sisters and four brothers, reside in Sweden.

Mrs. Goldstrand was a devoted member of the Swedish Lutheran church and was one of the charter members of the congregation. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon, April 24, at two o'clock from the residence, 1215 Norwood street, S. E., and at 2:30 from the Swedish Lutheran church, Rev. Hugo Thorene officiating. Interment will be in Evergreen cemetery.

FOUR SENT TO PENITENTIARY

Three Indians and a White Man Sentenced.

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 21.—Le Roy Millay, who for some time had conducted a pool hall at Delmont, and who entered a plea of guilty to an indictment charging him with mailing objectionable written matter in the postoffice at Delmont, was sentenced to a term of one year and six months at hard labor in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan. Millay is about fifty years old and has a wife and family at Delmont, his wife being an invalid.

Globe Laframboise and Daniel Campbell, Sisseton Sioux Indians, and Albert Four Generations, a Yankton Sioux, who pleaded guilty to having taken liquor upon Indian reservations, were sentenced to a term of one year and one day at Leavenworth and fines of $100 each and costs of prosecution.

PLOWING DAY AND NIGHT

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 21.—Several score immense power breaking outfits are at work in Western South Dakota and at points in the Missouri valley east of the river, breaking the prairie at an astonishing rate, which means that many thousands of acres of heretofore raw prairie land in those sections will this year for the first time be devoted to crops. Some of the power outfits have been provided with day and night crews and with immense searchlights, which enable them to be operated in the night as well as in the day, they being kept in operation continuously throughout the twenty-four hours.

GLASS CUTS HIS THROAT

Minnesota Man Meets Death in Peculiar Manner.

New Ulm, Minn., April 21.—Frank Preisinger, seventy-one years old, met death in a peculiar manner.
After spending part of the night sleeping in the depot he sauntered along Minnesota street, the principal thoroughfare, and ascended the stairs of the Reinhardt block, where he fell asleep. Shortly thereafter he tumbled down stairs, his head striking a large plate glass in the door at the foot of the stairs.
He was literally impaled on the ragged edges of the broken pane, which cut his throat and jugular vein, causing instant death.

Cherub Devine

By SEWELL FORD

Copyright, 1909, by Mitchell Kennerley

"My daughter, sir, is not exactly accustomed to—er—the kind of persons who might—"

"Oh, I see. Well, suit yourself about it—suit yourself. But it isn't at all necessary. I shall try to keep them quiet. There are to be only a few neighbors—the Wallowses and—"

"The Wallowses?"

"Yes, and the Willburs and the Miller-Tremways and old Bishop Horton and a stray baron or two."

"Bishop Horton? Is Bishop Horton coming? Coming here?"

"Why, yes. The bishop's a friend of mine. Know him, do you?"

"We were college classmates, Mr. Devine," said Mr. Hewington.

"That so? I never went to college with the bishop, but I've crossed the ocean with him twice, and once I held his hat while he made a speech."

"Extraordinary!" said Mr. Hewington.

"Think so? It may seem a little queer to you, but the bishop doesn't appear to look at it that way. Come down and meet him and the rest of the folks, won't you? We're to have a little supper about half past 8. And, say, bring the countess—that is, unless you're afraid of the crowd."

This last was a violation of a paragraph in the Cherub's own code of ethics, a paragraph which read, "When the other fellow's down and out don't rub it in." But the words had escaped before he knew it. Fortunately Mr. Hewington did not seem to notice the allusion, for he retired, repeating in an undertone: "The Wallowses! Bishop Horton! The Miller-Tremways!"

And sure enough, early in the evening the big rooms of the great house began to echo with the lively chatter of many guests. There was the portly Mrs. Wallows, whose dinner dances are always such brilliant affairs; there were the laughing Willburs, the hyphenated Tremways and a half dozen others without whose names and pictures the Sunday supplements would be incomplete.

They were somewhat disposed to look curiously upon Mr. Cherub Devine at first, but when the bishop had patted him affectionately on the shoulder and the baron had effusively embraced him the atmosphere thawed perceptibly.

The person who was least at his ease was young Mr. Wallows. For awhile he was stiffer than ever, and he had the air of one who expects something very embarrassing to happen.

But the Cherub was undisturbed. Thus far he had gained his point. Whether Nick Wallows had been influenced by that suggestion of future business or whether he had acted purely from motives of good fellowship he cared not. The thing had been done. The program which the Cherub had so hastily outlined that morning was being carried out. Moreover, his guests appeared to be enjoying the novelty.

In the course of half an hour even Nick Wallows seemed to have become reassured that nothing untoward was about to happen. As a matter of fact, Mr. Devine was acquitting himself creditably.

"Isn't he unique? So charmingly naïve!" whispered Mrs. Miller-Tremways.

"Perfectly delightful!" assented Mrs. Wallows. "He says such odd things."

"Then I resigned. I rather expected the firm to go under when they got that blow. They didn't, though."

A thorough test will convince you that Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills meet these requirements most admirably.

They awaken the sluggish liver at once, they regulate the bowels quickly, they invigorate the kidneys. Inside of twenty-four hours after beginning this treatment you will feel fine and wonder how any medicine could accomplish so much in so short a time.

Two Men Drowned.

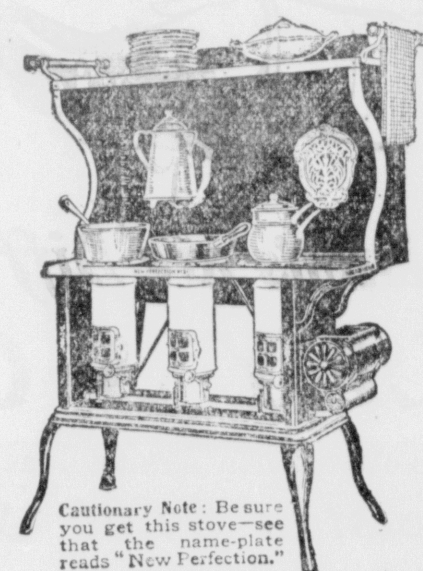

Grand Marais, Minn., April 21.—A gasoline flyer which plies along the north shore entered this harbor Monday night about 10 o'clock. The boat later was found anchored in the bay, but nobody was on board. While Joseph Croft was hauling stones across the bay in a rowboat he saw two bodies and a small steel boat on the bottom. It is supposed the men were coming ashore when the boat capsized.

Many Women who are Splendid Cooks dread having to prepare an elaborate dinner because they are not sufficiently strong to stand over an intensely hot coal range. This is especially true in summer. Every woman takes pride in the table she sets, but often it is done at tremendous cost to her own vitality through the weakening effect of cooking on a coal range in a hot kitchen.

It is no longer necessary to wear yourself out preparing a fine dinner. Even in the heat of summer you can cook a large dinner without being worn out.
